"Big shove"

I met my real love
I let my eyes close
I got the big shove
Entirely exposed
You and me were the mountains
Falling into the sea
We held each other together
Streight lies between you and me
It's hard for me to turn my back
I been thinking of you as my friend
I just want to thank you now
For making my decision
I've done everything I can think of
But I can't do it anymore
I've thought of everything I can think of
But I'm not thinking anymore
Anymore...Anymore...
