Keep it on the fast track
How do you match this
But I digress
You said it best
I love that song from Mexico
Any effort of the last ditch
Couldn't ever match this
But the hole in the floor
Was a stab in the back you missed
And you got a darkside
With the sleightest of hands
I think you understand
And I dont mind
I'm not afraid to let you know
You got a hollow body yeah
What does it take to fill the void
You got a hollow body yeah
Im not afraid to tell you so
You got a hollow body yeah
what does it take to fill the void
You got a hollow body yeah

You're spilling out
You thought the bleaching would never win
You're empty now
And emptiness is not your friend
You're spilling it out
You've been around enough to know
Can you figure it out (You're empty now You're empty now You're empty now)
Are you empty?
I'm not afraid to let you know
You got a hollow body yeah
What does it take to fill the void
Another hollow body yeah
You're gonna take and lose control
You got a hollow body yeah
I'm not afraid to let you know
You got a hollow body yeah
