Sadness
All that's left of our love is
Sadness
Soaring in the sky above us
Sadness
Slightly killing every feeling but
My tenderness for you
For you
Feelings die except my craving
For you
Dying like a wounded raven
For you
Embers glow the heart is slowing down.
What's left of our love?
Sadness
Sadness
Soaring in the sky above us
Sadness
Slightly killing every feeling but
My tenderness for you
For you
For you
