We stopped at a roadhouse in Texas a little place called Hamburger's stand I heard that a jukebox was playing a song called Truck Driving Man

Pour me another cup of coffee for it is the best of the land Oh I put a nickel in the jukebox and play the Truck Driving Man

The waitress then brought us some coffee
I thanked her and called her again I said that a song should a-suit me
'cause I like Truck Driving Man

Pour me another cup of coffee-

We climbed back aboard that old semi and then like a flash we was gone He got that old truck wheels to rolling and we rolled away to San Antone

Pour me another cup of coffee
