And uh, no callin' after ten
No hustlin' my friends
No askin' "Cristal, where's she been?"
And uh, no showin' up unannounced
No you ain't been around
No callin', no stalkin', no conversations
And that's how it should be
Cause if it's over
Then it's over, he should let me go
So why you still in my dreams?
You should leave me alone
Boy you got a hold of my mind
You should let it go
Wait a minute baby, I'm the only one holding on

I wanna call you
Wish you would fall through
Knock on the door
Say you love me, you miss me
Hate to admit that
Wish we could get back
Thought I'd be cool but the truth is
I, I'm hung up on you

Cause every time the telephone rings
I pick it up hoping it's your call
Every time I turn on the radio
That damn radio is playing our song
Why can't I get over you?
Why can't I get over you?
Why can't I get over you?
I don't know what to do
If you're gone then why won't you just let me go?
[Let me go]

I don't understand
This wasn't in the plan
Should've been a clean-cut break up
No regrets, no second thoughts
I said I wanted out
You said you wanted out

You said you wanted to do our own thing
So what I'm trippin' bout?

Lookin' in the mirror
I'm sure that I've had enough
I'm sick of friends saying
Go have your fun, don't be in love
When you got a broken heart
Havin' fun is tough
And if that wasn't enough
Still wanna call you

I wanna call you
Wish you would fall through
Knock on the door
Say you love me, you miss me
Hate to admit that
Wish we could get back
Thought I'd be cool but the truth is
I, I'm hung up on you

Cause every time the telephone rings
I pick it up hoping it's your call
Every time I turn on the radio
That damn radio is playing our song
Why can't I get over you?
Why can't I get over you?
Why can't I get over you?
I don't know what to do
If you're gone then why won't you just let me go?
[Let me go]

I never thought it would have happened
Not in my wildest dreams would I ever have imagined
I'd be such a mess, I'm stressed, yes I'm havin'
Havin' trouble lettin' you go
I never thought it would have happened
Not in my wildest dreams would I ever have imagined
I'd be such a mess, I'm stressed, yes i'm havin'
Havin' trouble lettin' you go

Cause every time the telephone rings
I pick it up hoping it's your call
Every time I turn on the radio
That damn radio is playing our song
Why can't I get over you?
Why can't I get over you?
Why can't I get over you?
I don't know what to do
If you're gone then why won't you just let me go?
[Let me go]

Cause every time the telephone rings
I pick it up hoping it's your call
Every time I turn on the radio
That damn radio is playing our song
Why can't I get over you?
Why can't I get over you?
Why can't I get over you?
I don't know what to do
If you're gone then why won't you just let me go?
[Let me go]

I never thought it would have happened
I never thought it would be me
I never thought it would have happened
I never thought it would be me
I never thought it would have happened
