The dawn is breaking, my head is aching
I feel rejected, it's cristal clear
I'm so hang over, don't want this to be over
I am addicted, it's cristal clear (it's cristal clear)

I'm losing everything, everything dear to me
I'm losing everything, everything I want to be x2

The night is inviting, theres no in fighting
I play my role, it's cristal clear
I want it, I hate it, if I need it I'll take it Losing control, it's cristal clear (it's cristal clear)

I'm losing everything, everything dear to me
I'm losing everything, everything I want to be x2

Everything I want to be x3

I'm losing everything, everything dear to me
I'm losing everything, everything i want to be x3

everything i want to be x2"
