I miss you in my empty heart
Miss you, in this empty room
I miss you in this empty world of mine
Miss you in my fantasies
I miss you in the dreams I dream
I miss you in this empty world of mine

'Cause I'm so afraid to let you know how I feel
'Cause I believe that what we have is for real

'Cause you're in every thought of mine
You're my after rain come shine
You're what makes my heart beat faster
And you're my very true love master
And then I finally understood that I won't stop loving you

I miss you every lonely day
I miss you every lonely night
I miss you in this lonely world of mine
Miss to hear you call my name
Miss your kisses, ohh, nothing's the same
Miss you in this lonely world of mine, ohh

I'm so afraid to let you know how I feel
'Cause I believe that what we have is for real

'Cause you're in every thought of mine
You're my after rain come shine
You're what makes my heart beat faster
And you're my very true love master
And then I finally understood that I won't stop loving
you

The world is, you're in every thought of mine
You're my after rain come shine
You're what makes my heart beat faster
And you're my very true love master
And then I finally understood that I won't stop missing
you
And then I finally understood that I won't stop missing
you
