Hah hah hah

The wind in my hair
And the black in my eyes
I was holding back tears
As I reeled with surprise
There was no one to phone
I just chewed at the time
I was waving goodbye
To control of my mind

And the beats of my heart marked the passing of time
And I just wanna scream to the sky
There are times when my mind is an explosion of feelings
I'm trying to hold on to the soul inside

I go looking for lies
In your play the game eyes
But I couldn't find the way out
The where's or the why's
Should I laugh? Should I cry?
Should I live? Should I die?
It's a wild celebration
Of feelings inside

And the beat of my heart marks the passing of time
And I just wanna scream to the sky
feelings
I'm trying to hold on to the soul inside

And the beat of my heart marks the passing of time
And I just wanna scream to the sky
And there are times when my mind is an explosion of
feelings
I'm trying to hold on to the soul inside

And the beat of my heart marks the passing of time
And I just wanna scream to the sky
And there are times when my mind is an explosion of
feelings

I'm trying to hold on to the soul inside, whoa inside inside, oh
I got to hold to the soul inside

It's a wild celebration of feelings inside
Of feelings inside
It's a wild celebration of feelings inside
And it's tearing me
And it's tearing me up
And it's tearing me up
And it's tearing me apart
It's a wild
It's a wild celebration of feelings inside, oh ho
And it's a wild

And I'm trying to hold on
And I'm trying to hold on
Hold, hold, hold
Feelings inside
