

The Softies "Alaska"

I don't want to move to alaska I won't marry you there or any place this country life you've been talking about won't fancy your much too pretty face

oh, alaska
I won't be seeing that soon you can go without me
and do whatever you want to in time I'd surely grow lonesome you would no doubt become bored desperate for company other than mine and luxuries I can't afford

oh, alaska
I won't be seeing that soon

it might have been a nicer place to be if you'd been nicer to me

oh, alaska
I won't be seeing that soon
do whatever you want to do whatever you want to do
