You're as skittish as me and I can see
The mirror image of fear in your eyes
As skittish as me and I can see

You're shy and scared and weird
You're so fucked up, you're perfect for me
Can't you see? It couldn't be
That's why you appeal so much to me

You're as skittish as me, can't you see?
If you show me you like me
It'll give me the creeps, as skittish as me
Can't you see?

I'm shy and scared and weird
I'm so fucked up, the only way it could be
Can't you see? It couldn't be
That's why you appeal so much to me

Things seem so much better
Now that we're just friends
Although this feeling for you
Never seems to end

You're as skittish as me and I'd be pleased
If you'd admit you need some therapy
As skittish as me, can't you see?

We're shy and scared and weird
We're so fucked up, you're perfect for me
Can't you see? It couldn't be
That's why you appeal so much to me
That's why you appeal so much to me
