maybe you tried but I know better than to hear your side I'd feel better maybe if you cried too eyes teary and sore I'm ringing the bell and I know you hear it but I can't tell if you're laughing or crying you hide it so well you've done this before

with splintered hands
I keep knocking on your door
with splintered hands
I keep knocking on your door

you offer your help but I don't want it keep it to yourself I'd rather die than do that again I've made that mistake before you just stand there you see I'm bleeding all over but I don't care I'm used to this there's broken glass everywhere I'm cold and sore

with splintered hands
I keep knocking on your door
with splintered hands
I keep knocking on your door

with splintered hands
I keep knocking on your door
with splintered hands
I keep knocking on your door
