Way too far away, two days
Have another drink on me
Now you're finally free

I wish I could make this train
Go faster than it does
I wish I could make this train
Go faster than anything

Tracks and tunnels covered in snow
I should have gone home a long time ago
This seemingly endless fight
Ends tomorrow night

I wish I could make this train
Go faster than it does
I wish I could make this train
Go faster than anything

You and me both abandon all of our hope
We leave it for somebody else to find

I raise my bow and aim
Missing every time the same
No use being angry at anyone
Like we've already done

I wish I could make this train
Go faster than it does
I wish I could make this train
Go faster than anything

I wish I could make this train
Go faster than it does
I wish I could make this train
Go faster than anything
