(Verse 1)

I see the knife's shimmer
I grab hold, the light's grow dimmer
Prepare to make your feelings bleed
You're gonna look at your heart and see...a band-aid won't be all you'll need

(Chorus)

I blink twice, you think I'm talking out the window
But I blink twice, because I'm fighting back tears
This is going to hurt, I almost feel sorry for you
This is going to hurt, your heart smashed into a million pieces

(Verse 1)

I miss the times we kissed, places we went
But neither of us really knew what forever meant Yeah but now our 15 minutes of love's over
You just weren't good enough, not a good lover

(Chorus) (2x)

(Bridge)

So now I wave goodbye
And you spit in my face
I wish it wasn't so bad
I wish you wouldn't call your dad
Now he'll kick my ass
I finally notice...Damn! I've never run so fast

(Chorus) (2x)
