"Dying"

My greatest ambition was to bed a girl
Now I bedded a girl on a bed of nails.
I think I'm going to hell
I might just curl up in my shell

Chorus: I'm looking at the world from the bottom of a glass.
If you don't like my attitude
you can kiss my ass.

Flying on nothing but alar
I fly from afar
All I ever did was OD
on a 12oz bag of speed

Chorus

Death is nothing but a another trip and for some reason I am tripping on meth
Life is sometimes hell and sometimes heaven
Hell at school and heaven in Elena

Chorus

My memory is dead and so am I
I know my family and friends won't cry.
They will laugh and smile at all the things I tried
Sara will be the only one that ever cried.
