It
How I always find myself at your headstone
And it
Chorus: No one misses you, No one misses you, No

The only thing I miss is seeing you slit your wrists
Chorus
Oh how I love to hate her

And once her hands were cut off
I

Chorus
Knowing it
But the blood is always a pleasure for me
And I never get tired of seeing it
Oh dear, your cheap ceremony was swift and useless
Because no one showed
My smile just never fades
And I never mind spitting on her casket
Now grab the knife, my child
It

NO ONE MISSES YOU!
