Does the government own
the silence of our time.
Is that why to kill someone is such a crime.

I can feel the ice in my veins
When I put my fist through the window pane
Isn't it a shame
That I still can't feel the pain.

Why do you laugh at my sociopathic tendencies
Why do you get mad when I try to succeed
Why do you laugh at my depraved depression
Why don't you believe in relieving your oppression

Why do we try to talk to the government
Why don't we just lobotomize them all away
America where dreams are broken
Where the only dirty word is hope

Chorus: Vengeance is mine and my time is at hand.
We say this is a new land.
Don't you think so
