"In Hell"

Fire surrounds, searing flames,
Dying in fire, painful death,
Flames ignite your every breath,
Intense heat sears your soul,
So you scream, no one hears
The bowels of Hell it sears
Soul consumed to everlasting rot,
Flames ignite your flammable breath,

Intense heat sears your soul,
Everything you've known is gone in a flash,
Grilled, and burnt and black as you burn,
Never ending, everywhere you turn
Molten rock rolls over your soul
To burn in hell was your ultimate goal
Now you are there, screaming in pain,
Were is the water to ease suffering
Scenes of gore are yet never ending,
But you feel it inside
This is just life
In Hell!
