Let it go

How far will a falling star take me?
How far can I go, can I go?
Gotta be what the nightmare made me
Gotta be, gotta be what I see

Jump clear of the falling parts from me
How far will they go, will they go?
Can't give what you want me, baby
Just let it go

Breaking me down, break me down, sweet sugar
Breaking me down, break me down
Breaking me down to the ground, sweet baby
Breaking me down to the ground

Too much is made of what's in me
Not enough about how I strive
Keep an eye on your world, it's cheating
Keep an eye, keep an eye on me

Deep inside there's a little place for me
A little place for me
Can't give what you want me, baby
Just leave it be

Breaking me down, break me down, sweet sugar
Breaking me down, break me down
Breaking me down to the ground, sweet baby
Breaking me down to the ground

Let it go

Sweet razor wound
Deep down slice my groove
Sweet razor wound
Deep down, c'mon and slice it

How far did the falling star take me?
How far did it go, did it go?
Had to be what the nightmare made me

Fuck, just had to be

Jump clear of the falling parts from me
How far did they go, did they go?
Can't give what you want from me, baby
Hell, just let it go

Breaking me down, break me down, sweet sugar
Breaking me down, break me down
Breaking me down to the ground, sweet baby
Breaking me down to the ground

Breaking me down, break me down
Breaking me down, break me down
Breaking me down to the ground, sweet baby
Breaking me down to the ground

Yeah yeah, yeah yeah, yeah yeah
