I lick the surface of a freedom ride, Under a hammering light..
I scream!
Let's roll the dice of the future, burning in my hand,
I've built destruction upon the velvet skies,
Maybe I'm strong, Maybe I'm wrong

Chorus

Lead us, Shadowchild - soiled by your faith in disguise
Shadowside - reflecting the eyes

I'm raising hell, a magic spell,
Pain and pleasure together as one,
I will recall, I will recall, When I'm down the stairs..
I split human cries, I can feel when they lie,
My sun being one with the.. universe, Hear my call

Chorus

Creating my crown from the millions of lights,
I'm abused beyond recognition,
Pre-millennium futuristic,
I predict you all to live under an individual sun,
We're all out collecting our senses and run..

Chorus

Lead us, Shadowchild - soiled by your faith in disguise
Shadowside - reflecting the eyes
Lead us, Shadowchild - the truth's lying far from your life
Shadowside - reflecting the eyes
