The uncertainties of death are a distraction creating complications of the fate we will truly meet the truth buried by time hidden beneath the sands of pride

Creation is the breathe from the sigh of a lonely God Life is the test of love
In which one lets go In hopes it will come back Will we ever find our way Back to the one who let us go, to the one who loved us so,
for the sake of coming home, would give his life, his love, his his everything for a race of rejection self focused and furthering spawn of the almighty and we try so hard to put ourselves back together when we crumble from the weathering

His love the greatest wonder How we could be of worth After constant separation Created by our selfish works
We are loved, we are of worth Beyond a measure we can't grasp A capacity beyond our own
To keep giving with no return

We are the sons and daughters Of the author of existence
The richest blood of all the earth
We are royal

We spend so much of our lives
Searching for answers beyond
Our mental capacity
We look
At the stars, at the sky, and deny, there's a God,

How do we, justify, there's no greater being?

We fail to look past, the visual transience,
The meaning behind faith, belief in what you can't see

The feeling that I get matched from no other sources renders my faith possible The heart's motives trigger the presence or absence of almighty God my heart longs to fulfill thy satisfaction.
