Oh, when you call my name
Oh, when you call my name

I was a rebel even as a little girl
I've been a loner ever since I can remember
I changed my hair because it wouldn't be in curls
I'm on the street with bangs and now to please pretenders

Chorus:
Oh, when you call my name
Oh, when you call my name

Oh, when you call my name
I'll be waiting on the border, baby
Oh, when you call my name

Oh, when you call my name
I'll be two steps over the water, baby
Oh, when you call my name

I got my vertigo from looking from above
I found a loophole having not become a member
I took a u-turn wasn't shaken kind of stirred
And if you see that kid there's no need to defend her
And even though I'm just a second from the blues
Always remember when it's time to flash my jaw-bone
Cause now I run like Walter Cronkite read the news
I'm walking on the water shining like a rhinestone

Chorus:
Oh, when you call my name
Oh, when you call my name

Oh, when you call my name
I'll be waiting on the border, baby
Oh, when you call my name

Oh, when you call my name
I'll be two steps over the water, baby
Oh, when you call my name

Bridge:
I'll be waiting
This ain't over

I'll be two steps, two steps
I'll be two steps over

I'll be two steps, two steps
I'll be two steps over

Chorus:
Oh, when you call my name
Oh, when you call my name

Oh, when you call my name
I'll be waiting on the border, baby
Oh, when you call my name

Oh, when you call my name
I'll be two steps over the water, baby

Outro:
Over mountains, cross the water
I'll be waiting
This ain't over
