Don't know every high and every low
But I'm just getting started
This can't be the meaning of it all
Everthing is just repeating

Maybe there is nothing to believe
What do we need to sort out
What if there is nothing here for me
You let me in just to get out

I feel your arms around me
But not the heat
Your eyes are pointing at me
But do you see

The bubbles don't burst
My heart is not taking off
Love doesn't hurt
Baby give up all you got

Speak love how mechanical of you
Where's the truth when I need it
Get rid of the glitter and the gold
Put the love where I feel it

Make real
Fill the hollow with a heart
Give it some kind of meaning
Crack up show me who you really are
Just the glimpse to believe in

I feel your arms around me
But not the heat
Your eyes are pointing at me
But do you see

The bubbles don't burst
My heart is not taking off
Love doesn't hurt
Baby give up all you got

You don't need love
I need love
You don't need love x2

I feel your arms around me
But not the heat
Your eyes are pointing at me
But do you see

I feel your arms around me
But not the heat
Your eyes are pointing at me
But do you see

The bubbles don't burst
My heart is not taking off
Love doesn't hurt
