"Million Pieces"

Oh-oh-oh oh-oh oh-oh-oh oh-oh-oh oh-oh-oh
Oh-oh-oh oh-oh oh-oh-oh oh-oh-oh oh-oh-oh

Last night I said I was fine
But I lied, my heart in thousand pieces
Million pieces tonight
I said I was fine
But I lied, my heart in thousand pieces so
Say everything is alright, oh
Just say everything is alright, oh
Just say everything is alright

My friends tell me to stop
Not to worry they tell me to wait
And see what happens
See what happens with you
My friends tell me to stop
Not to worry they tell me to wait so
Say everything is alright, oh
Just say everything is alright, oh
Just say everything is alright

So let's straighten this baby
Don't break me my baby
You know you owe me better
How come you don't remember
I'm living by the hour
I'm living by the minute
So stay with me baby
Don't break me my baby say

Oh-oh-oh oh-oh oh-oh-oh oh-oh-oh oh-oh-oh
Oh-oh-oh oh-oh oh-oh-oh oh-oh-oh oh-oh-oh

Last night I said I was fine
But I lied, my heart in thousand pieces
Million pieces tonight
I said I was fine
But I lied, my heart in thousand pieces so
Say everything is alright, oh
Just say everything is alright, oh

Just say everything is alright

So let's straighten this baby
Don't break me my baby
You know you owe me better
How come you don't remember
I'm living by the hour
I'm living by the minute
So stay with me baby
Don't break me my baby

Let's straighten this baby
Don't break me my baby
You know you owe me better
How come you don't remember
I'm living by the hour
I'm living by the minute
So stay with me baby
Don't break me my baby

I'm sure it'll never happen again
I'm getting what I want in the end
Yes I'm sure it'll never happen again
What I want in the end
What I want in the end in the end, say
In the end in the end in the end in the end in the end
Oh-oh-oh oh-oh oh-oh-oh oh-oh-oh oh-oh-oh

Stay with me baby
Don't break me my baby
So stay with me baby so stay
Stay with me baby
Don't break me my baby
So stay with me baby so stay
