burn the edges of your thoughts
feel the air beneath

witness the cosmic dance from a red view

devastating fire

pieces of a paradise never created floating on the tide of the human mind washing the shores of the microcosmos guiding hordes of men towards the sick and the blind red view ascend, descend - the order of chaos stay safe in the eye of the renaissance tornado see the universe unite and yourself become its key, and a sense of correlation your opportunity
