[There was almost everything wrong or missing]
Hold up this morning caught in the morning news and saw the forecast and didn't know what it do almost lost my mind
Didn't know what to say, didn't know what to do Didn't know how to feel, so how turn over to see if you was watching it too then i saw a glance of your shadow but it wasn't you Then I saw a note your pillow it drives
To me when I started to read The forecast is so strong with the hurricane Is coming your way today, Is this happening to me
At the same time that I see my face Appear up on a TV screen.
You wrote: baby I had to leave You can't keep disappointing me as the tears begin to roll i heard the wind begin to blow.

Chorus:

The hurricane I feel is you, provoked by what I put you through, the weatherman is so confused
He has never heard of you.
I'm racing through the streets to find, we losin' my piece of mine
its a natural disaster and this heartache it makes it harder.

See all the things that you wrote me I feel you could have told me but I guess you couldn't say it to my face I'll be runnin into a storm back and caused me home
They say they don't go aside 'cause I won't survive Feel like I'm running down the path to nowhere Still like I'm going crazy but I just don't care 'cause I feel like I got to find you

Willing to do what I got to do Emotions are runnin wild in my head
They got me running fast as i can
So I can see, if I can stop this destruction

There's right here before me.
And the winds I blow been rapidly Get change the best of me and I don't know If I can back to let you go.

Chorus:

The hurricane I feel is you, provoked by what I put you through, the weatherman is so confused
He has never heard of you.
I'm racing through the streets to find, we losin' my
piece of mine
its a natural disaster and this heartache it makes it harder.

I know I left your heart to freeze in the cloud, I'm sorry for every lie that I told all you ever wanted from me was to love you unconditionally
But it seem too hard for me my baby.
Now I'm praying for the sun to come back down (yes i am)
Is it ever hard to figure it out See I have did the best I can, have to be a good man, never been myself, yeah , just can face the pain
All this heartache caused hurricane, hurricane

[Chorus:]

So much harder Hurricane, hurricane Ohh, yeahh hurricane Mmmm hurricane
This heartache is making it harder.
So much harder baby, so much harder baby ohhh.
