Down

Are you sad enough to cry
Or confused enough to ask why
Does it bother you to see
Me in you, you in me
It may be a lousy deal
But I need to share what I feel
I was sad and wanted you to feel as bad as I do

I said it so that you'd feel down
You'd feel down
I said it so that you'd feel down
As if I'd feel better

Don't you leave me on my own
It's a bore to cry alone
If you're not going to comfort me
Than be so kind, cry with me

I said it so that you'd feel down
You'd feel down
I said it so that you'd feel down
As if I'd feel better
I said it so that you'd feel down
I said it so that you'd feel down
I said it so that you'd feel down
As if I'd feel better

It's more than anger, more than rage
It must be love that is the weight that holds me down
But now you've got to let me up, let me up, let me up
Yeah you've got to let me up, let me up
I, I said it so that you'd feel down
I said it so that you'd feel down
I said it so that you'd feel down
As if I'd feel better
As if I'd feel better
As if I'd feel
