Alone in the dark, I've been blowing u[sparks
But the fire never starts, poor me
I've been stumbling and dazed A little manic and strange but now I'm wide awake and things are gonna change

Watch out, I'm stepping out into the sunshine and it's good
So get in, I'm gonna win all of the prizes that I should So watch out, the sun came out - I'll shout it out ...
whoooooooooo

I've been locked in a box throwing punches at thoughts Hoping somebody knocks and sets me free I'm making a sound I've got my frequency down I think I'm flying but my feet are on the ground

Watch out, I'm stepping out into the sunshine and it's
good
So get in, I'm gonna win all of the prizes that I should
So watch out, the sun came out - I'll shout it out ...

Green, yellow, purple, red - too many colors in my head
All these shade of misery in broken pieces next to me Locked inside I lost the key Can't believe I stumbled in the dark...wishing I could see

Watch out, I'm stepping out into the sunshine and it's
good
So get in, I'm gonna win all of the prizes that I should
So watch out, the sun came out - I'll shout it out ...
