[Tragedy Khadafi] What I write is a haze dutch dipped in leak Silence is a G's code so I barely speak Like a Scorsese flick Leonardo when 'The Departed' of Killaz Theme Mentally ill, so retarded By them liners, y'all niggas can't fuck wit my lines Tear shit up like emptying clips from two .9s It's just embedded in my artery In my veins, you can say the game is a major part of me Simple and plain I got killaz on my left side, hustlaz on my right Supreme Court indictments over my head when I write Wishing life had a greater purpose Niggas think the shit is all good But that's the shit you see on the surface I'm going thru the struggle life is a hustle, I ain't lying Baby brothers in the can, sister is on the verge of dying My soul is crying yet I still rep till it's done Any song that I touch I embrace the track The most intimate vision, what it is to be black You know I write it so I live it and what's realer then that
