

Solitude Aeturnus "Insanity's Circles"

Visit "Insanity's Circles" on MotoLyrics.com

Insanity's circles continue their motion
Whispers of words fall to the floor
Mental battles fought and won again
Tripping through haze - Hate and anger revel
The words within my mind sing songs of praise
Melodies of unkown
A dying world of life engulfed upon itself
Visions marred by thoughts - Setting ourselves on Indulging myself in dreams of never realities
Groping for meaning - We eventually fall
Tomorrow is always there
Hopes for a new day we enlighten our souls
As we bleed ourselves - We spawn rivers of doubt
Insanity has thin walls
