It's always the right time to see you again
Everything is the way it suppose to be
More time with you is alright with me
A true lady is what you are to me
It is the way you ought to be

It's always a good time
It's always a good time with you
It's always a good time to me
It's always a good time, that's the way it should be

Every moment with you seems like the first time
There's a first time for everything
Like the first time we talked about good times
Making way for a new day
A new day with you again

It's always a good time
It's always a good time with you
It's always a good time to me
It's always a good time, that's the way it should be

Of course there's going to be better days
An even better day that lies ahead
A chance to relive all the good memories
You have a lot to look forward to
I have a lot of good times to give, that is to us

It's always a good time
It's always a good time with you
It's always a good time to me
It's always a good time, that's the way it should be
