Where are all the good memories
Where are all the special times gone through
I thought of only good things we've shared
Somehow all those things has gone away
Has left and is no longer in my life
What happened, I need to know

Where is the luv
Where is the luv
Where is the luv
There needs to be a better day
A new love on the way

I'm going to start a new life
A new life of truth and good memories
Good memories shared along the way
A new life, a new day
I will always have something good to say
A new journey

There's going to be a better luv
Where is the luv
It's a new luv
A better day
A better way

Where is the luv
Where is the luv
Where is the luv
There needs to be a better day
A new luv on the way

I'm ready
