You looking like all day today
Maybe there's more to come tonight
I know there's something good in sight
Something good with your looks I say

You looking mighty good
You looking mighty good I say

There's more to you than appears
One night with me will erase all your fears
Nothing I do will bring you to tears
There's something good with your looks I say

You looking mighty good
You looking mighty good I say

You have a lot of class and appeal
It's like true appeal I feel
For you I feel I can trust
A girl with class and style A-plus

You looking mighty good, I say
You looking mighty good
