Chorus -

You don't need him girl cause he don't treat you right,
You need a real man who's gonna hold you tight,
And put it down on you just how you like,
Girl, I'm that type of dude you need up in your life.

First Verse -

I seen the way that your dude treat you,
You need a better man, so it's time for me to meet you,
And try to get to know ya and show ya I could be the better man
That you've always hoped for, even more,
I seen the look in your eyes and the way that you cry,
Cause your dude's too wrong not to treat you right girl,
I can make ya night if you hold on tight,
Where you never wanna see ya dude back in your life,
I can put it on you in the car or the bed,
Have you moaning all night from the dick that I give,
And the love that I show make ya pussy want more,
Turn you on to things you ain't done before girl,
And the way you walk, and the way you talk,
I'm a little turned on by the way you flaunt,
It's a little fucked up that your dude don't call,
You deserve a real man who's gonna hold you in his arms,
When the sex gets rough and the times get tough, Forget about your man cause he can't show you love, If you really want a guy who gon' put it in your life how you like,
Hit me up.

Second Chorus - Repeat Twice -

Hit me up any time that you wanna,
When you need a real man to put it on ya,
Cause I can see that you ain't happy cause yo weak ass baby daddy ain't treating you right girl.

Second Verse -

Now you're sitting there all alone watching the stars light up the sky, Thinking in your mind, if you had the right guy then you wouldn't have to cry every night,
And as them tears fall down your eyes,
You keep telling yourself that it's the last time that you let them tears take control of them fears, But it's hard when you're deeply in love with a guy,
And cleanse your mind for the next day cause the next day just ain't the same, Like when you're fighting with your man because your mind is full of doubts, Knowing deep inside your heart he turned his back and fucked around,
Girl you need this type of guy up in your life, who looks you dead in your eyes,
And tells you everything's gon' be alright for real,
And girl you need this type of guy up in your life, who looks you dead in your eyes, And says "You got a pretty smile, dear, for real."

Chorus - Repeat Twice

You don't need him girl cause he don't treat you right,
You need a real man who's gonna hold you tight,
And put it down on you just how you like,
Girl, I'm that type of dude you need up in your life.

Chorus - Repeat Twice -

Hit me up any time that you wanna,
When you need a real man to put it on ya,
Cause I can see that you ain't happy cause yo weak ass
baby daddy ain't treating you right girl.
