There's a name for you - Mans ruin.
She's nothing new, laced in lipstick,
Hips lure me in, out of love sick,
Tells white lies to the stars,
Bites my lip, gives me a glass,
Which she keeps half full,
When I'm drunk, she might stand a chance,
Laying and praying for blokes up heights,
Blinded by flashing lights,
A gin glaze pulls over my eyes,
Home is where my heart is,
And not on my sleeve,
So I'll leave with her in the wolfs head
And that Shakira stance

The only thing I ever wanted,
Was to feel love for someone worth it,
Stood up a light house, waiting for her,
I've saved a seat by me, for who'll catch this beam.

Loose lips sinks ships,
That bitch wanted me to drown,
So take this line from me,
My girl you'll never be,
As I was saying I follow sayings,
You can't turn bad girls good,
Should you try - more fool you,
What I did with these see,
I told myself, love then leave,
That way only the stars catch me,
Beneath her sheets,
A new day dawns,
And it asks "where were you last night?",
I was blind to the sky,
In between the thighs of last night like.

The only thing I ever wanted,
Was to feel love for someone worth it,
Stood up a light house, waiting for her,
I've saved a seat by me, for who'll catch this beam.

It was a moment of weakness and yeah I dived in deep shit
And yes of course I was overly pissed,
I should have known better but this [?]
Even though I'm yawning
Cheap drinks, she didn't stop pouring,
A dress sense appalling but fuck this I'm horny, So lets see if I remember half of this shit in the morning,
Hopefully not,
And she'll keep braggers rights from last night for the rest of her life,
Cos she only likes guys with mics, nice or not it don't matter
Cos while we're hot she's on top and names make her drop to her knees,
I told you she's easy but I don't wanna be seen Leaving the scene at 3 when I've got standards to keep.

And as I wake up, I look left, who the hell is that in my bed! ?

I apologise for being too drunk to say goodnight,
I apologise for being too quick to leave before I said good morning.
I apologise for being too drunk to say goodnight,
I apologise for being too quick to leave before I said
thanks
