Have you ever heard of love at first sight?
While you walk by, it slowly controls your eyes.
In the days, I can barely feel me conscious, girl,
On more days, feel the wonder of above.

You control myself, my heart begins to shout out,
She got me going fast, I really think I love her,
I must have had a thousand million suns,
So I think it's about time to try and make you mine.

Turn back, make me feel the way that you do,
Cause the love that you make, everything seem so true.
You're my, you're my, you're my, you're my.

You're the reason why I stop and call out your name,
You're the reason why I breathe almost every day.
You're my, you're my, you're my secret crush and I can't let you go.

Time and time I seek your pretty face,
Walking by, you look so fly,
I can barely hold on to my life.

And I want you, babe,
I'm gonna have you, babe,
And I'd do anything to get in your way.

And you'll never have to worry about another guy.

Turn back, make me feel the way that you do,
Cause the love that you make, everything seem so true.
You're my, you're my, you're my, you're my.

You're the reason why I stop and call out your name,
You're the reason why I breathe almost every day.
You're my, you're my, you're my secret crush and I
can't let you go.

Come and say you want me,
Come and say you want me,
Come and say you want me,

Come and say you want me.

Turn back, make me feel the way that you do,
Cause the love that you make, everything seem so true.
You're my, you're my, you're my, you're my.

You're the reason why I stop and call out your name,
You're the reason why I breathe almost every day.
You're my, you're my, you're my secret crush and I
can't let you go
