There's a hole in my heart
Where you decided there should be
I guess it's where I should start
Cause it's easy to point and place the blame
But you couldn't see
You'd rather just hold it against me
And now I'm locked inside an aching ever after

Weapon in my hand
This was not according to my plan
(My plan!)

Take back what you did and
Kidnap 'cause we ain't dead
Do you think of me like I remember you
You used to
'kay so now it's over
Don't come any closer
I don't even know you like before
This is me settling the score

I am hurt to find out
That you've been hiding all along
You finally said it out loud
But I'm grateful that I've finally come to know
You weren't who I thought
You didn't even think you might get caught
But we're at the end and now we stand as strangers

Weapon in my hand
This was not according to my plan
(My plan!)

Take back what you did and
Kidnap 'cause we ain't dead
Do you think of me like I remember you
You used to
'kay so now it's over
Don't come any closer
I don't even know you like before
This is me settling the score

Love might come to you
But you're not gonna get it from me
I won't reach for you
I can't believe that you were there
The lights, they were falling
You knew I was quietly calling out
My heart was quietly calling out
Are you happy now?
(Are you happy now?)

Take back what you did and
Kidnap 'cause we ain't dead
Do you think of me like I remember you
You used to
'kay so now it's over
Don't come any closer
I don't even know you like before
This is me settling the score
