"Wolves"

Wolves are watching me
All they want is to cut my breathing
They're the cause of my first collapse
This is the aftermath
Claws are crushing me
Now I've learned to shut my feelings down
Don't cry, I won't cry
Please someone tell me why

I needed you to surround the whole of me
Foolishly waited for hours and now it's nearly morning
The wolves are wearing me down
I'd love to change the fact that
I need you now
I'm not shutting you out
I need you now
I'm not shutting you out

Like animals
They hunt you through the vein and you will Run away, run run away
But is there a turn to take
The night is young
You got a big breath of air within your lungs
I plan to fight
Cause things were always right when

I needed you to surround the whole of me
Foolishly waited for hours and now it's nearly morning
The wolves are wearing me down
I'd love to change the fact that
I need you now
I'm not shutting you out
I need you now
I'm not shutting you out

I said I was over with you and I'd be better now
I just saw myself as one to walk away and not turn around
The strangest thing is just now I'm realizing

I needed you to surround the whole of me
Foolishly waited for hours and now it's nearly morning
The wolves are wearing me down
I'd love to change the fact that
I need you now
I'm not shutting you out
I need you now
I'm not shutting you out
I need you now
I'm not shutting you out
