An endless well found within
Where to go when I get dry.
All, beyond understanding
That I need becoming mine.

Again and again
I will seek
Into that well,
I will dip deep.
I treasure all I find within
Certainly I won't give in,
I won't give in.

You should try to go down too
There, are sleeping mysteries.
The only thing you could do
Wake them up and just believe,
just believe, just believe, believe...

Again and again

I will seek
Into that well,
I will dip deep.

I treasure all I find within
Certainly I won't give in, I won't give in, I won't give in...
