We're flying faster than I ever dreamt before
And I dream of you all night

Hands clinched so tightly intertwined with yours
Heart paced so fast, sweat screamin' from my pores
Reel flickers on am I holding you too tight
Am I comforting you, am I doing it all right

And I, I try to make you feel
You sigh, might cry what isn't real

No matter what I do, no matter what I say
Things always end this way
Things work out, things work out
No matter how it goes, the same story shows
I always go down with a fight
Things work out, things work out with a fight

Take step left or right which one should I do
I've stopped at nothing to try to please you
With your foot to my face you walk all over me
But I'm standing up finally

Goodbye, don't lie, you did this
Face my, surprise, you will miss my kiss
