"Get It Back"

I'm still standing and demanding
An explanation from you
Go on, take long
It could be a day or two
Till you come through
With something that sounds alright
To make opaque
Of what went on that night

This is the first time
The first time's the last time
Cause you can't get it back
Was it a mistake
Did you cry for my sake
Cause you won't get it back

On and on it's different now
Thrown in the towel

It's over I'm sober
No longer drunk off your love
Did he know the
Spot that is right above
Your neck, accept
The consequences of your
Doings screwing
With what you had before

I'm pulling my teeth out
Tell me what you think now
Come on go throw a fit
But it won't change a bit

You wrote it, you controlled it
And now you have to show it
You wrote it, you wrote it down
