So you
Took what you wanted to
Did what you can't undo
For you it's all brand new
So I
Decided not to cry
Vanished away from me eye
Emotions all run dry

What are you going to do
When it's staring right at you
Take it, take it
Break the heart that you cant see
Tear it down completely
Break it, break it
Right now

I've got to figure out somehow
To forget all about
The notes in my ear
And I say
That in the hallway
You keep what's for me
It's me you fear

The music will never play
It's on pause I say
I feel so taken
I feel so shaken
I feel so aching
Forsaken

If you want it go ahead
Take the cap right off my head
Take it, take it
Break the heart that you can't see
Tear it down completely
Take it, break it
My heart
