Waking up, still in bed,
Sheets pulled up to my head.
Pants are gone, hairs a mess.
Halfpast 3, yeah thats the best.
I know you've done things with her.
You've had fun and she'll concur
Jeans and bra are thrown around,
Damn thats loud.

Chorus

Let the music help you lose control.
These somber feelings are no more and now you know
its time to,
Stand up c'mon and tell me how you're feeling.
It's a scream? supposed to be the real thing.
Jump back in bed its always been a safe place.
C'mon now girl lets see if you can keep pace.

Skip this track, yeah that's the one.
Sing along and we'll have fun
Take a seat hold on tight.
Make me feel like I'm on fire.
Bring it back just one more time,
Oh yeah now I'm feeling fine.
Keep the music in your head when you jump back into bead.

Chorus

Let the music help you lose control.
These somber feelings are no more and now you know
its time to,
Stand up c'mon and tell me how you're feeling.
It's a scream? supposed to be the real thing.
Jump back in bed its always been a safe place.
C'mon now girl lets see if you can keep pace.

Close your eyes and be creative,
act like this song is about you.
Don't press pause and keep me waiting cuz a part of me will then turn blue.

Chorus

Let the music help you lose control.

These somber feelings are no more and now you know
its time to,
Stand up c'mon and tell me how you're feeling.
It's a scream? supposed to be the real thing.
Jump back in bed its always been a safe place.
C'mon now girl lets see if you can keep pace.
