So sweet and tender
Creator of all life
I adore You
I live my life for You

So special, so strong
With love unconditional
This song is for You
You know I support You

For any man who's ever made You cry
For any man who's ever told You lies
I apologize
I apologize

For any man who's ever made You cry
For any man who's ever told You lies
I apologize
I apologize

So darn and beautiful
Full of style and grace
Some don't deserve You
Tryin' to hurt You

Your heart, a treasure
And my greatest reward
Can't get enough of You
You know that I love You

Any man who's ever made You cry
For any man who's ever told You lies
I apologize
I apologize

For any man who's ever made You cry
For any man who's ever told You lies
I apologize
I apologize

One day You'll know
(One day You'll know)

Just how valuable You are to me
You're my everything
(Your every little thing, yeah)

A better song
(A better song)
Is where You belong
We don't deserve You
For what we put You through, I apologize yo

For now that we've let you down
[Incomprehensible]
No one could take Your place, Your beautiful face
No one could take Your place, Your beautiful face
(For all)
For all that You've been through
I apologize

Any man who's ever made You cry
I apologize
I apologize

For any man who's ever made You cry
I apologize
I apologize

For any man who's laid their hands on You
For any man who's ever been untrue
Don't You know I apologize? Yeah
I apologize

For any man who's laid their hands on You
I apologize
I apologize
