The memories still stay
I captured from a star
So far in the distance
Yet so near to my heart

As moments such as this

As moments such as this

As moments such as this

As moments such as this

I walk into another day
Never realize the time
A chapter of my life
Of which is mine

As moments such as this

As moments such as this

As moments such as this

As moments such as this

Behind you

The memories still stay
I captured from the stars
So far in the distance
Yet so near to my heart

As moments such as this

The memories still stay
I captured from a star
So far in the distance
Yet so near to my heart

As moments such as this

As moments such as this

As moments such as this

As moments such as this

I walk into another day
Never realize the time
A chapter of my life
Of which is mine

As moments such as this

As moments such as this

As moments such as this

As moments such as this

Behind you

The memories still stay
I captured from the stars
So far in the distance
Yet so near to my heart

As moments such as this
