All this loud noise
All this pressure
All these distractions
The bigger picture
I can see it with my eyes
I can taste it in my mouth
I can sit here all night
But Ive got my hands full
Shake all the right hands
Decide to please
Sly habit, sly tendency
To repeat, to repeat, to repeat
He can see it in his eyes
Its like salt in his mouth
He could sit here all night
Hes got his hands full
Its just another night
So switch off the light and sleep for a while
Tomorrow things will be alright
If you open your eyes
Its just another night
So switch off the light and sleep for a while
Tomorrow things will be alright
If you open your eyes
Open your eyes, open your eyes
The problem isn't the problem
The solution is the problem
Cant hear, can't hear, you can't hear, can't hear
Its just another night
So switch off the light and sleep for a while
Tomorrow things will be alright
If you open your eyes
Its just another night
So switch off the light and sleep for a while
Tomorrow, tomorrow things will be alright
I can see it with my eyes
I can taste it in my mouth
I can sit here all night
But Ive got my hands full now
Ive got my hands full
Ive got my hands full

Ive got my hands full
Ive got my hands full
