They bound the hands of Jesus in the garden where he prayed

They led him thru the streets in shame

They spat upon the savior so pure and free from sin

They said, "crucify him: he's to blame

He could have called ten thousand angels

To destroy the world and set him free

He could have called ten thousand angels

But he died alone, for you and me

Upon his precious head they placed a crown of thorns

They laughed and said, "Behold the king"

They struck him and they cursed him and mocked his holy name

All alone he suffered everything

When they nailed him to the cross, his mother stood nearby,

He said, "Woman, behold thy son!"

He cried, "I thirst for water," but they gave him none to drink

Then the sinful work of man was done

To the howling mob he yielded: he did not for mercy cry

The cross of shame he took alone

And when he cried, "It's finished," he gave himself to die

Salvation's wondrous plan was done
