

Something For Kate "White"

Visit "White" on MotoLyrics.com

you think of white
somewhere outside
somehow connected to your brain or about to knock on your door

eternity
is a policy

magnetism and mystery
wishful thinking and fantasy and i hope that you're not hoping for me

you think of sight
and reason collides
somehow transmitting from space asking you to line up and take your place infinity

is a reality

life jackets and sympathy bullshit daydreams
i know you can't be knowing for me and i hope that you're not
hoping for me
