I wouldn't swear we're not invincible
It's just I barely make it through the nights
Lord I'm not doing all that well myself these days
Guess I'm just trying to survive

Spent a lifetime just to get over it
Lay my head right down in my Momma's arms
She sang to me and held me when I was young
Guess I'll do the same for her now she's old

La da la da la da la da la da la di da [x2]

And I ain't never been the crying kind
But nights like this, I could just lay down and die
As far as the saying goes, the saying goes as far
Guess it's true, no one's safe here in these arms

La da la da la da la da la da la di da [x2]

So I guess we'll remain the strong ones
Keep our blind faith in the sun
We'll be a testament to dying old and gold inside
Or dying good and young
Dying good and young
Cause only the good die young
They say, they say, they say, they say
Only the good die young
They say, they say, they say, they say
Only the good die young
They say, they say

La da la da la da la da la da la di da
