With my head between my knees
And my words on the floor
I ain't never been this tired
No, never before
If my maker don't take my in my sleep tonight
I'll be damn surprised, I'll be damn surprised

And I know, I ain't no good
I know I wake up hungrier than I should
I'm not selling out, I'm giving in
Cause I wake up crazier as each song, it begins

I know you sleep well
But know I don't care how
Cause I know I'm stronger than you'll ever be Cause I know you're weaker than I'll ever be
