(Wait) I haven't been this scared in weeks
(Wait) Cause I've been sleeping next to thieves
(Wait) And I've been waking on my knees
At the wings? of a person that I'll never be

(Take) All my pride hung on the wall
(Take) Cause I have never felt so small
(Take) I guess this never meant a thing at all
Cause your idols teach arrogance so well

(Stop) Cut the take and take all my words
(Stop) Cause they mostly sound absurd
(Stop) Cause I would never whore myself to put
A record on the shelf for all of these years

My backbone's telling me,
To keep on screaming, my heart says give it up
I'm sure you're weary of this tired voice
But this screaming's gone on too long

My backbone's tell me,
To keep on screaming, my heart says give it up
I'm sure you're tired of this tired voice
And this screaming's gone on too long
